

Privacy Policy for the City of Somerset

Last updated: April 11, 2025

Our Commitment to Privacy

The City of Somerset respects your privacy and is committed to protecting any personal information you provide while visiting our official website. This Privacy Policy outlines what data we collect, how it is used, and your rights under applicable Texas laws.

Information We Collect

When you visit our website or submit forms, we may collect:

- Name
- Phone number
- Email address
- IP address and browser information
- Comments or service request details

Use of Information

This information is used to respond to inquiries, improve public services, and comply with applicable laws. Information submitted to the City may be considered a public record and is subject to disclosure under the Texas Public Information Act (PIA).

Data Retention and Disclosure

The City retains personal data in accordance with state record retention requirements and may disclose information to comply with lawful requests.

Security

We implement safeguards to protect your information, though no method of transmission is entirely secure. The City is not liable for unintended disclosures.

Children's Privacy

This website is not intended for children under 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Accessibility

We are committed to digital accessibility and aim to follow WCAG 2.1 standards. If you need assistance accessing content, please contact City Hall.
